Among them were noted Mr. and Mrs. William Voelker, Mrs. John Newman, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Sengerwald and others.

Linsly For 1900.
Yesterday occurred the enrollment of students at the Linsly Institute, on Fifteenth street. The number of students will probably exceed that of last year. A number of new scholars have added their names to the roll and the indications promise success. Great interest is taken by the faculty to encourage all sports, and in the military camp, which occurs next week, they have won the favor of all. During the camp military laws are observed and sports are indulged in. About seventy-five or eighty boys will take part in the camp life this season, and an all round good time is predicted. A member of the faculty is in attendance at the school in the mornings, from 10:20 to 11:20 o'clock.

REPUBLICANS HOLD COUNTY CONVENTION

This Afternoon to Place a House of Delegates Ticket in the Field, and to Name

THE SENATORIAL AND JUDICIAL

Conferees—Great Interest is Being Evincing in the Work of the Convention.

This afternoon at 2 o'clock, in the chamber of the second branch of council, city building, County Chairman Hornish will call to order the Republican county convention which will select four candidates for the house of delegates and name two senatorial and two judicial conferees from each of the ten districts of the county. There are sixty-seven delegates to the convention, and the districts' voting strength is as follows: Washington, 8; Madison, 8; Clay, 8; Union, 8; Centre, 7; Webster, 8; Ritchie, 9; Triadelphia, 6; Richland, 2; Liberty, 2. The delegates chosen are the following:

Washington—Edward Elliott, G. W. Otto, Edward Birch, W. H. Muegge, A. C. Britt, Jacob Snyder, Frank Miller, C. J. Rawling, Edward Fox.
Madison—H. C. Underwood, B. S. Allison, H. L. Loos, W. C. Brown, C. H. Watkins, sr., W. C. Donaldson, N. C. Hamilton, G. W. Schenk.
Clay—Frank Milligan, Samuel Uelton, H. W. Fair, L. D. Flora, N. G. Fiel, B. H. Sillyard, W. L. Jones, Fred Meyer.

Union—Harry Hocking, Thomas Morgan, G. M. Ford, Martin Pebler, John Beckett, Thomas Shanley, J. C. Mansbarger, Samuel Nesbitt.
Centre—Henry Kerns, C. D. Thompson, Leroy Millard, Jacob Retzer, J. E. Reed, Frank Kitson, Charles Breunmer.

Webster—David Ryan, Charles Eary, D. G. Evans, George Baron, W. Johnston, G. W. Bowers, C. F. Schultze, W. R. Dudley.
Ritchie—E. L. Armbricht, Adam Honcker, William Zimmer, W. G. Meyers, Wylie Woods, E. P. Wheat, L. C. Dierhorst, W. P. Rose, L. Miller.

Triadelphia—W. P. Hubbard, Charles Seibert, G. W. Humphrey, John Arbenz, R. Anderson, G. W. Smith.
Liberty—Daniel Maxwell, S. S. Gardner.

Richland—J. D. Hastings, J. B. Lyle. Great interest is being evincing in the work of the convention and it is likely that there will be a large number of interested spectators. Messrs. Charles E. VanKuren, George A. Laughlin, Hugh Sterling and Peter Bachmann are putting up a vigorous fight for the business man's place on the ticket; it seems to be conceded that the lawyer on the ticket will be S. G. Smith; for the country district representative, Ralph McCoy and Abram McCulloch are making the contest, and for the workman's place, there are several aspirants, including Henry Steck, a stogie-maker, and Jesse Jackson, vice president of the National Brotherhood of Pottery.

The rumor that Frank M. Milligan would enter the race for the house of delegates, which was in circulation yesterday, was without foundation.

It was stated last night that Major W. J. W. Cowden might be brought into the race for house of delegates. Major Cowden declines to exert himself for the nomination, and is in the hands of his friends, who will not present his name before the convention unless they believe he has a good chance to win.

CORNER STONE LAYING

At New Martinsville Attended by the Wheeling and Cyrene Commanderies of the Knights Templar, of Wheeling—Impressive Ceremonies. Yesterday morning some fifty members of Wheeling Commandery No. 1, and Cyrene Commandery No. 7, of the Knights Templar, of this city, went to New Martinsville, via the Ohio River railroad, to take a leading part in the laying of the corner stones of the new Wetzel county court house and new M. E. church edifice. Upon their arrival at New Martinsville, it was found that nearly the entire population had turned out to extend the community's warmest welcome to the Wheeling Knights, who, headed by the Opera House band, made a beautiful showing.

In the ceremonies that followed, Wheeling commandery escorted the members of the grand lodge, including Dr. E. M. Turner, who acted as grand master, while Cyrene commandery acted as escort to the blue lodge. The corner stone of the court house was laid at 11 o'clock, in the presence of a great crowd, and with the imposing and impressive Masonic ceremonies usual on such occasions. Dr. Turner, as the representative of the West Virginia grand lodge, was in charge of the ceremonies. Following the laying of the stone, there were addresses suitable to the occasion.

The two commanderies, headed by their band, then proceeded to the old M. E. church, where the ladies of the congregation, assisted by their pastor, Rev. Mr. Smith, served dinner to the knights and visitors.

In the afternoon the corner-stone of the new M. E. church edifice was laid with equally impressive ceremonies. Dr. Turner again being in charge. After this ceremony, Wheeling commandery and the band serenaded the ladies of the church, and Rev. C. M. Oliphant, of Wheeling, thanked the ladies on behalf of the commandery for the hospitable entertainment, of which they had been the recipients. Dr. H. B. Baguery, eminent commander, also expressed the appreciation of the knights.

After the services, the band gave a concert from the lawn of the home of Mr. Jacob Koontz, which was enjoyed by a large crowd. The commanderies returned to the city on the evening train, having thoroughly enjoyed the day's exercises, and needless to state having a full appreciation of the boundless hospitality of the New Martinsville people.

THE RAILROADS.

William Gibson, general superintendent of the Baltimore & Ohio's Pittsburgh system, has been promoted to general superintendent of transportation of the company's entire system in place of D. F. Maroney, who will become assistant to General Superintendent Fitzgerald, of the lines east of Pittsburgh. Mr. Gibson's present position will be abolished and his duties assigned to Mr. Fitzgerald, with headquarters at Baltimore. The management of the lines west of Pittsburgh will be assigned to General Superintendent J. C. Stuart, of Chicago, and it is understood, will include the Pittsburgh & Western road, when the absorption of the road is completed. In his new position Mr. Gibson will be the principal assistant of General Manager Underwood, and will have charge of between 2,600 and 4,000 miles of territory in the Baltimore & Ohio system. It is said that upon the absorption of the Pittsburgh & Western Thomas M. King, president and receiver, will be made third vice president, with headquarters in Pittsburgh, his jurisdiction to be over the Pittsburgh & Western, Cumberland Valley, and Cleveland Terminal Valley.

First Bale of Cotton.

Every year there is considerable rivalry among the railroads for the honor of carrying the first bale of the new cotton crop. This year the honor falls to the Lackawanna railroad, whose fast freight line this week received the first bale of the new crop shipped from Memphis, Tenn., and consigned to B. B. Harvey & Company, of Boston.

WASHINGTON PRESBYTERY IS TO MEET

Next Tuesday at Mount Prospect to Vote on the Proposed Revision of the Creed.

FAVOR SUPPLEMENTAL CREED

In Preference to a Change in the Confession of Faith—List of the Questions Prepared.

Next Tuesday, September 4, at Mt. Prospect, Pa., near Burgottstown, there will be a meeting of the Washington Presbytery of the Presbyterian church, for the purpose of discussing and voting on the proposed revision of the creed of the church. Great interest is being taken in the meeting, and it will be largely attended. It is said that while there is a sentiment for a shorter creed, and not for the revision of the Confession of Faith.

At the last meeting of the Presbyterian general assembly a committee was appointed to carry this matter down to the presbyteries for action, and the committee has issued a circular to the presbyteries.

The circular, after reciting the authority for the appointment of the committee to ascertain the general feeling in regard to the proposed revision of the creed, requests the presbyteries to consider and answer the following inquiries:

"1. Do you desire a revision of our Confession of Faith?"

"2. Do you desire a supplemental, explanatory statement?"

"3. Do you desire to supplement our present doctrinal standards with a briefer statement of the doctrines most surely believed among us, expressing in simple language the faith of the church in loyalty to the system of doctrine contained in holy scripture and held by the reformed churches?"

"4. Do you desire the dismissal of the whole subject, so that our doctrinal standards shall remain as they are, without any change whatever, whether revisional, supplemental or substitutional?"

The circular is signed by fifteen members of the committee as follows:

Rev. Stephen A. Dana, of Philadelphia, being the only member of the committee whose signature is not attached to the document: Charles A. Dickey, Herick Johnson, Samuel J. Nicolls, Daniel W. Fisher, William McKibbin, George B. Stewart, Samuel P. Sprecher, Henry Van Dyke, Benjamin Harrison, John M. Harlan, Daniel R. Noyes, E. W. C. Humphrey, William R. Crabbe, John E. Parsons, Eliza A. Fraser.

The presbyteries are requested to record the affirmative and negative votes.
